They Won't Trouble You Long.

Children grow up—nothing on earth grows so fast as children. It was yesterday, and that lad was playing with tops, a buoyant boy. He is a man, and gone now! There is no more childhood for him and for us. Life has claimed him. When a beginning is made, it is like raveling a stocking; stitch by stitch gives way till all are gone. The house has not a child in it. There is no more noise in the hall—boys rushing in pell-mell; it is very orderly now. There is no more skates or sleds, bats, balls or strings left scattered about. Things are neat enough now.

There is no delay for breakfast for sleepy folks; there is no longer any task before you of looking for anybody, and tucking up the bedclothes. There are no disputes to settle, nobody to get off to school, no complaints, no importunities for impossible things, no rips to mend, no fingers to tie up, no faces to be washed, or collars to be arranged? There never was such peace in the house! It would sound like music to hear some feet clatter down the front stairs! Oh, for some children's noise.

What used to all us that we were hushing their loud laugh, checking their noisy frolic, and reproving their slapping and banging the doors? We wish our neighbors would lend us an archer or two to make a little noise in these premises. A home without children! It is like a lantern and no candles; a garden and no flowers; a vine and no grapes; a brook and no water gurgling and rushing up its channels. We want to be fired, to be vexed, to be run over, to hear child-life at work with all its varieties.

During the secular days this is enough marked. But it is Sunday that puts our home to the proof. That is the Christian family day. The intervals of public worship are long spaces of peace. The family seems made up on that day. The children are at home. You can lay your hands on their heads. They seem to recognize the greater and lesser love—to God and to friends. The house is peaceful but not still. There is a low and melodious thrill of children in it. But Sunday comes too still now. There is a silence that aches in the ear. There is too much room at the table, too much at the hearth. The bedrooms are a world too orderly. There is too much leisure and too little.

Alas! what mean these things? Is somebody growing old? Are these signs and tokens? Is life wearing?

—Two persons of the colored persuasion got into an altercation at New Orleans, when one drew what the other supposed to be a slung shot. The unarmed African at once took to his heels, pursued by his enemy. The latter, overtaking him, flung his "slung shot." Fair and square it hit the mark, covering his head with a soft substance not unlike human brains. The "wounded" darkey stopped instantly, ran his hand over his head, then examined it, and spluttered out, "Blowed if you ain't knocked my brains out, an' dey smells like bananas too."

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN DENTISTRY.

The attention of the public is called to a great discovery in Dentistry.

THE GREATEST ADVANCE STEP EVER MADE IN THE ART.

The main difficulty in wearing artificial teeth is, they do not hold in their place firmly enough, and add to this the annoyance of food getting under the plate while eating. I have discovered a method of so constructing the plate on which the teeth are set that they will not start or drop while eating or speaking, neither will any particles of food get under the plate, no matter what the condition of the mouth is, which is not true of any method hitherto used.

I have secured Letters Patent for the United States, England and France.

The improvement is not in material, but in the construction, which secures the atmospheric pressure on the entire plate.

I have sold the exclusive of said improvement to Dr. L. Gilman, to wit, the Counties of Franklin, Washington, Chittenden, Lamoille and Grand Isle. Those wishing to avail themselves of such improvement, will call on

A Card.

A clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge. Address, JOS. T. INMAN, Station D, Billie House, New York City.
